Bulls Prepared For Breakthrough in 2012

Armed with 16 returning starters, an unprecedented amount of underclassmen who have already earned both league-wide and national honors and a veteran, impressive coaching staff led by third-year head coach Jeff Quinn, the Bulls are ready to start making some noise in 2012.

While Buffalo didn't show the kind of win-loss results that it had hoped for in 2011, there were enough positive signs that indicate the breakthrough the coaches and players are feeling is imminent.

The reason for the optimism begins with a talented, battle-hardened core of rising underclassmen who have already seen significant success. Start with first-team All-MAC honorees Khalil Mack and Branden Oliver who highlight each side of the ball and joined Davonte Shannon as the only other Bull to earn first-team honors as sophomores.

The Bulls, who averaged over 30 points per game at home last season, lose only two offensive starters and just four from a defense that returns eight of its top 12 tacklers. Quinn has put together an impressive staff that has been part of teams that have won a pair of Super Bowl titles, eight national championships and 26 conference crowns. The staff, which added defensive coordinator Lou Tepper (former head coach Illinois, Edinboro and Indiana, PA) and defensive backfield coach Maurice Linguist this winter, has been a part of 75 bowl games and has coached in eight national championship games.

Here's a look position-by-position at the battles that will occur this spring as the Bulls prepare to open the 2012 season at Georgia.

QUARTERBACKS

One of Buffalo's key offensive losses is quarterback Chazz Anderson, who started all 12 games for the Bulls after transferring in from Cincinnati in 2011. That doesn't mean Buffalo is starting from scratch in 2012.

The Bulls will return two quarterbacks – senior Jerry Davis and junior Alex Zordich – who have significant starting experience and two other highly-touted redshirt freshmen in Joe Licata and Tony Daniel.

Davis started eight games in 2010, throwing 16 touchdown passes, and is an accomplished passer. In 2010 he threw for over 200 yards on five occasions and also ran for 236 yards.

Zordich is a strong runner who continues to improve his throwing skills and is blessed with great size, strength and intangibles. He started four games in 2010 and served as the backup to Anderson last season.

Both Licata and Daniel were highly-recruited quarterbacks coming out of high school and have the benefit of learning the offense last fall. Licata is one of the most decorated quarterbacks to ever come out of WNY, winning the Connolly Cup emblematic of the area's best player and setting the WNY record for touchdown passes with 87. Daniel is a tall, rangy athlete that ESPN Recruiting had just outside of the top 100 quarterback prospects of 2011.

True freshman Collin Michael was ranked the fourth best quarterback prospect in the state of Ohio.

RUNNING BACKS

Simply put, the Bulls have found their bellcow ballcarrier in Miami, FL native Branden Oliver, who had one of the most spectacular seasons in UB football history last fall. Oliver's super sophomore campaign has already earned him some pre-season hype as he was selected by the Touchdown Club of Columbus as one of six Mid-American Conference "Players to Watch" in 2012. He is also on the watch list for the Maxwell Award and the Doak Walker Award.

He was certainly worth the price of admission last fall. Oliver started the season fast, rushing for over 100 yards for the first time in the season opener at Pittsburgh, and rarely slowed down en route to a school record for single-season rushing attempts (306), yards (1,395), 100-yard rushing games (8) and all-purpose yards (1,760).

More impressive was the fact that most of the records to fall were held by current Green Bay Packer standout, and Super Bowl champion, James Starks and most ridiculous of all is the fact that Oliver had more rushing attempts (306) in 2011 than he had total rushing yards (298) in his freshman campaign.

The junior-to-be is rare combination of strength, speed and balance at a chiseled 5-8, 200 pounds. His 235 rushing yards against Akron was the second-most in school history, and the most in Buffalo's Division I era. In all, he scored 13 touchdowns on the season, averaged an impressive 4.6 yards per carry and had four touchdown jaunts of over 20 yards, including a 68-yarder at Eastern Michigan.

Sophomore Anthone Taylor, who saw action in seven games as a true freshman and junior Brandon Murie, who has breakaway speed, are expected to get the bulk of reps behind Oliver. Sophomore James Potts is eligible and looking to make an impact in 2012.

True freshmen Devin Campbell and Jordan Johnson will add depth to the running back corps.

The Bulls made good use of the fullback position last season and expect Rashad Jean and Boomer Brock to battle for the starting position starting this spring. Jean saw regular action late last season.

WIDE RECEIVERS

The Bulls were hardest hit by graduation at this position as Marcus Rivers, Terrell Jackson and Ed Young have all finished their eligibility, although Jackson was lost for most of the back half of the 2011 season with injury.

In junior Alex Neutz Buffalo has one of the emerging big play receivers in the Mid-American Conference. As a sophomore the long, rangy Grand Island, NY native was among the big-play leaders in the MAC, averaging 14.9 yards per catch and going over 100 yards receiving in three games. Neutz finished the season with 43 receptions for 641 yards and four touchdowns in just nine games, ranking 56th in the nation in yards receiving per game (71.22 ypg).

Junior Fred Lee saw extended work late in the season and finished the year with 20 receptions and a pair of touchdowns. Sophomore Devon Hughes saw the majority of his action in the slot and finished with 18 receptions for 123 yards and a score.

Buffalo looks to the continued development of senior Saron Hood, sophomores Cordero Dixon and Rudy Johnson and redshirt freshman Ron Willoughby to continue to make progress in the passing game.

Also adding depth to the wide receiver position will be Marcus McGill and Malcolm Robinson.

TIGHT ENDS

This is one of the Bulls' deepest and most promising positions as Buffalo returns four underclassmen with a nice mix of skill sets to provide a variety of options to UB's diverse offense.

Junior Jake Reeder will be fully recovered from a knee injury that limited him greatly last year. At 6-5, 250 pounds Reeder is a fierce run blocker who can also get out in space. Junior Jimmy Gordon is a physical blocker and special teams dynamo who plays with an edge.

Yet another junior, Alex Dennison, is the fastest of the group, as a converted quarterback, and should only improve in his second full season at the position. His one reception last year was a 57-yard touchdown catch. The last member of the quartet is athletic redshirt freshman Matt Weiser who has excellent hands and speed while continuing to add weight to a sturdy frame.

Mason Schrek, a 6-5 tight end, is a true freshman from Medina, OH.

OFFENSIVE LINE

No area of the Buffalo football team was more improved than the offensive line in 2011, particularly compared to Quinn's first season, which no doubt pleased the long-time offensive line coach greatly.

What's more encouraging is the fact that Buffalo's strong offensive performance last year – including over 360 yards of total offense per game and a record-breaking season by tailback Branden Oliver – is the fact that the Bulls return all but one offensive line starter.

The Bulls are young across the offense, but no seniors will be counted on more than the versatile Graham Whinery and tackle Gokhan Ozkan. Whinery, a Texas native, may well shift back to guard – where he started as a sophomore – after starting all 12 games at center last year. Whinery is the quiet leader of a rapidly improving group. Ozkan, meanwhile, is showing improvement in his leadership skills, and started all 12 games at right tackle last year. A physical specimen at 6-7, 325, Ozkan is fully developing into the dominating tackle the coaching staff has envisioned.

Junior Jasen Carlson has also spent time playing both center and guard in his career and will also be counted on greatly. A rising star at guard is WNY native Andre Davis who excelled as a redshirt freshman, starting all 12 games and at times serving as an overpowering force.

Yet another young guard with a bright future is sophomore Dillon Guy, who got the starting nod on several occasions last year. Guy, like Davis, is big, strong and has a mean streak. The other player in the interior who will push to start is transfer Trevor Sales. Sales, who spent a season playing for offensive line coach Adam Shorter at Delaware State, sat out last season and is expected to challenge for the starting center position and is a powerpack at 6-1, 314 pounds.

The Bulls lost left tackle Matt Ostrowski to graduation, but have experience and talent ready to step in. Junior tackle Pat Wilson missed last season with an injury, but previously had started at left tackle as a redshirt freshman and is one of the Bulls most athletic big men. Sophomores Gabriel Barbe, Jake Silas and Anthony Bartholomew are all big bodies that are ready to contribute on a more regular basis.

Three strong, physical redshirt freshmen – John Kling, Bob Blodgett and Jesse Back – will be ready to step in if needed and have bright futures.

True freshmen Dan Collura (6-6, 272), Jaden Cotton (6-5, 329) and Robert Riche (6-6, 270) bring a lot of size to the Bulls' offensive line.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls will return two highly productive starters in its multiple three- and four-down fronts and will need to replace graduated nose guard Richie Smith.

Buffalo native Steven Means has had an extremely productive career and looks to cap it with an All-MAC senior season. A big-play specialist, Means had 33 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, blocked two kicks and returned an interception 42 yards for a touchdown versus Bowling Green. Means already ranks 10th all-time with 12 career sacks.

Junior Colby Way had a breakout season last fall and plays with an all-out motor that allowed him to lead all UB defensive lineman with 49 tackles (including 27 solo stops). Way finished second on the team in both sacks (3) and tackles for loss (7.5) and is just getting better.

While the Bulls will get some reinforcements in fall camp, for spring ball the others vying for playing time at defensive end will be Kristjan Sokoli, who excelled in a backup role, as well as Dalton Barksdale, a sophomore, who suffered through injuries last year. Sokoli had 14 tackles, four of them for losses, in a backup role, while Barksdale can play both inside and out.

At nose tackle the Bulls will count on senior Wyatt Cahill, a JUCO transfer last year, who had 15 tackles and recovered a fumble last year, in a bigger way. Resdhirt freshmen Kendall Patterson and Joe Felicia will look to show the staff they are ready for an increased role this fall.

JUCO transfer Beau Bachtelle and true freshmen Albert McCoy and Max Perisse will add depth to the defensive line.

LINEBACKERS

This position shows great promise as Buffalo returns all but two players and has a pair of returning honorees, including Sports Illustrated All-America Honorable Mention selection Khalil Mack.

Mack, a junior-to-be linebacker, is a game-changer whose play should be recognized on several pre-season awards lists. A first-team All-MAC selection, Mack has been devastating to offenses in his first two seasons, recording 35 tackles for loss, forcing seven fumbles, racking up 21 quarterback hurries and breaking up 12 passes.

His 2011 season was one for the ages, as the Fort Pierce, FL native racked up 65 tackles (38 solos) and finished in the top ten nationally in both tackles for loss (20.5, 3rd in the nation) and forced fumbles (5, 8th in the nation). He added 5.5 quarterback sacks, an interception and a fumble recovery. Those efforts earned him a spot on the Touchdown Club of Columbus list of six MAC "Players to Watch" for 2012 and a spot on the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award watch lists.

However, Mack will have plenty of company when it comes to potential playmakers in the Bulls' linebacking corps. Sophomore inside linebacker Lee Skinner earned a spot on Phil Steele Magazine's national All-Freshman team after a stellar first season that saw him rank second on the team with 80 total tackles (38 solos). The Dayton, OH native added five tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and two pass breakups.

Senior inside linebacker Scott Pettigrew has been a productive player throughout his career. He totaled 32 tackles last season and forced a fumble. Other inside backer candidates include sophomores Khari Brown and Jake Stockman who both saw significant special teams action last season. The staff is excited about what each of them brings.

Seniors Imani Chatman, Dalonte Wallace and Willie Moseley are all special teams standouts who look to finish their careers with a flourish. Along with youngsters, Kendall Roberson, Ryan Paxson (a Cincinnati transfer) and Brandon Tammaro, the Bulls possess tremendous depth at outside linebacker.

Also joining the Bulls this season is Waylon Fink, a 6-7 linebacker from Greensburg, PA.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

A year ago, the Bulls faced the unenviable task of replacing five seniors in the defensive backfield – three of them (Davonte Shannon, Josh Thomas and Domonic Cook) who were on NFL rosters last year.

Despite the pressure and youthful appearance that graduation void created, overall the Bulls defensive backs came through with flying colors, ranking 36th overall in pass defense in the nation.

The lone senior in the group is safety Isaac Baugh, who played in 11 games and finished with 36 tackles, broke up three passes and recovered a fumble. A physical safety, the Tennessee native will be counted on for leadership in a still youthful group.

Two players that stepped to the fore last season as a sophomore and freshman, respectively, were Najja Johnson and Cortney Lester. Johnson, a former walk-on, was among the nation's best at breaking up passes, recording 16 on the season, tying him for eighth best nationally. The fleet and heady corner added 39 tackles for the year.

Lester made the switch from wide receiver with style and proved to be a physical presence from his corner position. The Florida native was fifth on the team with 54 tackles (including an impressive 34 solo stops), added a sack, two tackles for loss, two interceptions, four pass breakups and a quarterback hurry.

Buffalo looks for the continued development of junior Carlos Lammons, who played in 10 games last season, sophomore Dwellie Striggles, sophomore Keith Takeh and redshirt freshmen Marqus Baker to build depth into the corner position.

Buffalo will need to replace Josh Copeland's 69 tackles at safety last season, but has a highly experienced player waiting in the wings in junior Okoye Houston, who has seen plenty of playing time his first two years. Houston had 35 tackles and a pair of pass breakups last season. Sophomores Whitney Sherry and Adam Redden will need to step up, as both have an abundance of athletic ability and will be counted on heavily. Junior Derek Brim has made a nice transition from wide receiver and should be a factor as. Redshirt freshman Kyndal Minnifield is also expected to push for playing time.

True freshmen Okezie Alozie, Brandon Berry, William Rembert and C.J. Stancil will add depth in the defensive backfield.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Bulls have two glaring areas to fill at the punter and punt return position, but feel very good about their placekicking and snapper positions.

UB graduated two senior punters – Jacob Schum and Peter Fardon – and will turn to sophomore Patrick Clarke this spring until signee Tyler Grassman arrives in August to compete for the starting job. Clarke had an incredible freshman season as the Bulls' kickoff man and placekicker after taking over the duties in week 10. Clarke hit all 10 of his PATs and connected on 6-of-6 field goals (43, 41, 49, 26, 31 and 27 yards) over the final three weeks of the season.

The Bulls will be looking for return men in the kickoff area this spring as the most veteran member of the team is Brandon Murie who had seven returns for 199 yards (28.4 per return), including a 93-yard return versus Akron.

The Bulls struggled mightily in the punt return area after Terrell Jackson went down to injury. Alex Neutz and Devon Hughes will likely get a long look as Quinn looks to cement that area going into fall camp.

The Bulls return the core of their special team groupings that made several big plays last year. Buffalo blocked six kicks on the season and also recovered two fumbles forced by their kickoff coverage team.

Head Coach Jeff Quinn

Head coach Jeff Quinn continues to mold the Buffalo football program into his vision since being hired on Dec. 22, 2009.

Entering his third season, Quinn led the Bulls to a 3-9 record (2-6 MAC) in 2011 with some record-breaking performances. Running back Branden Oliver set the single-season rushing record with 1,395 yards. He coached a pair of first-team All-MAC selections in Oliver and linebacker Khalil Mack.

The Bulls became more comfortable with Quinn's system in year two and the numbers reflected it. UB averaged eight more points and 68 more yards of total offense per game than in 2010. Buffalo had 13 plays of 40 or more yards in 2011 - the most in its Division I era.

In 2010, the Bulls finished 2-10 in his first season, with a 1-7 mark in MAC play. Despite the record, the Bulls boasted one of their best defenses in their Division I history in 2010 as efensive backs Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook earned All-MAC First Team honors, while linebacker Khalil Mack was named to Phil Steele's 2010 Postseason All-Freshman Team.

Quinn was introduced as the 24th head coach in the history of the University at Buffalo football program by former Director of Athletics Warde Manuel on Dec. 22.

Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons.

As offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Cincinnati for the past three seasons, Quinn has helped the Bearcats compile a 33-6 record, including a 12-0 record this year and a national No. 4 ranking heading into the Sugar Bowl meeting with defending national champion Florida.

Quinn was named one of five finalists for the 2009 Broyles Award, which is given to the nation's top assistant coach. Unranked in preseason polls, Cincinnati's undefeated regular season catapulted the Bearcats to No. 3 in the BCS standings and earned them an invitation to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, the school's second consecutive BCS game. UC set numerous school records in 2009, including those for wins (12), road wins (6), consecutive regular season wins (18), points (495), passing yards (3,844), fewest fumbles (10) and fewest turnovers (10).

Behind Quinn's offensive line, the Bearcats have had an individual top the 100-yard plateau in six of the last eight games and eight out of 12 games overall. UC has topped 200-yards rushing on three occasions and has set the school record for points and touchdowns. Offensive tackle Jeff Linkenbach was a midseason selection to the SI.com all-America squad.

UC leads the nation in passing efficiency (166.19) despite using five different quarterbacks through the course of the season. The Bearcats rank sixth in passing offense (320.3), scoring offense (39.8), and total offense (464.3) and 10th in sacks allowed (0.9) behind Quinn's coordination of the offense.

Eleven UC student-athletes were honored as all-BIG EAST selections, including four out of Quinn's five starting offensive linemen. Chris Jurek (1st), Alex Hoffman (2nd), Jason Kelce (2nd), and Linkenbach (2nd) earned all-BIG EAST honors in 2009.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference and its recruiting footprint, Quinn served as associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Central Michigan prior to his stint at Cincinnati and helped lead the Chippewas to the 2006 MAC title. He served as interim head coach for Central Michigan's 31-14 victory over Middle Tennessee in the 2006 Motor City Bowl prior to joining the UC staff.

He arrived at CMU in 2004 after 15 seasons at Grand Valley State. He was part of the staff that led the Lakers to back-to-back national championships in 2002 and 2003. The 2001 Laker offense averaged 600.8 yards and set an NCAA record by averaging 58.4 points per game.

The Quinn File

Year	School	Assignment
2010-	Buffalo	Head Coach
2007-09	Cincinnati	Offensive Coord./O-Line
2004-06	Central Michigan	Assoc. HC/Offensive Coord./O-Line
1989-03	Grand Valley State	Assoc. HC/Offensive Coord./O-Line
1986-88	Ohio Northern	Offensive Coord./Offensive Line
1984-85	DePauw	Offensive Line/Tight Ends

During his career, Quinn has coached 12 offensive linemen who have played in the professional ranks, including first, fourth, fifth, and seventh round NFL Draft choices, as well as 22 players who have earned All-America status. In 2008, Quinn mentored Offensive guard Trevor Canfield, who was an Associated Press Second-Team All-America selection, the first UC offensive lineman to earn a spot on the AP team since Bill Shalosky in 1952.

He is a 1984 graduate of Elmhurst College where he was a two-sport standout in football and wrestling. Quinn was twice named Student-Athlete of the Year at Elmhurst. He was inducted into Elmhurst's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Quinn earned a master of arts degree from DePauw in 1986 and an educational leadership master's degree endorsement from GVSU in 2000.

He and his wife Shannon have two sons, Kyle and Ryan. Kyle serves as the undergraduate student representative to the UC Board of Trustees. He was also awarded the Boren Scholarship as is studying in Brazil for the 2012-13 academic year. Ryan is a wrestler at Central Michigan.

What They Are Saying About Jeff Quinn

"Buffalo has got an experienced, talented and prepared head football coach in Jeff Quinn. He has been very choosy in his desire to be a head football coach and he felt Buffalo was just a great fit. I wish him the best and expect great things at the University at Buffalo from Jeff Quinn."
-Brian Kelly
Head football coach, Notre Dame

"Jeff Quinn was a pivotal part of the tremendous coaching staff built over the years at the University of Cincinnati, and was an important player in the success enjoyed by the UC Bearcats. It is my hope that same magic follows Jeff to the University at Buffalo."
–SUNY Chancellor Nancy L. Zimpher
President of University of Cincinnati (2003-09)

"We have followed Coach Quinn's Cincinnati offense quite closely here in Indianapolis. They have been up-tempo, exciting, and exceptionally productive. I'm certain UB students, alumni and fans will be very happy with the Bulls' squad Coach Quinn will produce."
–Bill Polian
Former President, Indianapolis Colts

"Jeff Quinn is one the most enthusiastic, passionate football coaches I have ever known. His knowledge of football is second to none and his wide-open brand of football will bring excitement to all UB fans. The other coaches in the MAC will have their hands full preparing for our UB football team."
–Jim McNally
UB Class of '62
Long-time NFL offensive line coach

Alex Wood

Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers
Iowa '79
Second Season at Buffalo

Alex Wood begins his second season as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Buffalo.

In his first season as offensive coordinator, the offense saw significant improvement. UB averaged eight more points and 68 more yards of total offense per game than in 2010. Buffalo had 13 plays of 40 or more yards in 2011 - the most in its Division I era.

As wide receiver coach, Wood coached Marcus Rivers to his first All-MAC selection. In addition, Alex Nuetz had the best season of his young career with a team-high 641 receiving yards in only nine games.

Wood brought with him over 30 years of experience at the Division I level and he has also served as a coordinator in the National Football League. He spent the past season as wide receivers coach at Miami University where he helped the RedHawks claim a Mid-American Conference championship a year removed from winning just one game.

His coaching career is highlighted by tremendous success at the highest levels of both college and professional football. From 1989-93 he was part of Dennis Erickson's staff for the Miami Hurricanes, coaching the running backs, while helping the Canes to a pair of National Championships (1989 and 1991) and a perfect 12-0 season in 1991.

Wood has also been a wide receiver coach in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals, a quarterback coach for the Minnesota Vikings and the offensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals.

After serving as offensive coordinator for two seasons at Wake Forest (1993-94), he was named as the head football coach at James Madison University. Wood led the Dukes to an 8-4 record in his first season including a trip to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In his four-year tenure at JMU, Wood compiled a record of 23-22.

Wood moved into the pro ranks in 1999, when he was hired by Dennis Green as the quarterbacks coach of the Minnesota Vikings. He spent four seasons with the Vikings' organization. In his first year with the team, the Vikings selected Daunte Culpepper in the first round of the 1999 NFL Draft. By Culpepper's second season, the young star not only took over the starting quarterback job but earned a start for the National Football Conference (NFC) in the Pro Bowl. He tied for the NFL lead with 33 passing touchdowns and ranked second in the NFC with 3,937 yards. Culpepper led the Vikings to the NFC Central title and a spot in the conference championship game.

In 2001, Culpepper was lost to a season-ending injury but still managed to finish third in the NFC in completion percentage (64.2). The Culpepper-Wood combination was back at it again in 2002. Culpepper spearheaded the NFL's second-ranked offensive unit and in the process the Vikings' quarterback finished second in the NFC in passing yardage (3,853) for the second time in Wood's tenure.

Wood was named wide receivers coach by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2003. In his one year in Cincinnati, Wood coached two players in the top 10 of receiving yards in the AFC (Chad Johnson and Peter Warrick). Johnson led the AFC with 1,355 yards on 90 receptions. He also had 10 touchdown receptions.

In 2004, Wood rejoined Green on the staff of the Arizona Cardinals. Wood served one season as the offensive coordinator for the Cardinals, overseeing the offensive staff and handling play-calling responsibilities.

He spent the 2006-07 seasons as the passing game coordinator at the University of Arkansas and ultimately ended up back in the Midwest helping the RedHawks of Miami become the first team in Division I history to go from one victory to double digit wins.

Wood is a native of Massillon, Ohio, and was a standout football player and wrestler at Washington High School. He and his wife, Rosa, have three children--Jerrel, Alex and Natalie. His son Alex is the defensive coordinator at Wayne (NE) State College.

Lou Tepper

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
Rutgers '67
First Season at Buffalo

Lou Tepper begins his first season with the Bulls, serving as UB's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. Tepper has won over 100 games as a head coach and has served as defensive coordinator at LSU, Illinois and Colorado.

Tepper, who boasts over 35 years of Division I coaching experience, sports a 101-75-2 overall record as a head coach with stints at Illinois, Edinboro and Indiana (PA). He is particularly well versed in coaching linebackers, as he has tutored three Butkus Award winners – Colorado's Alfred Williams and Illinois' Dana Howard and Kevin Hardy. He also has written a 328-page book entitled Complete Linebacking that was published by Human Kinetics.

Tepper has been a part of staffs that have participated in 10 bowl games, including three as a head coach. At Illinois, he led the Illini to three bowl games, including a win in the 1994 Liberty Bowl. In 2006, the University endowed a $300,000 "Lou Tepper Football Scholarship" to benefit linebackers for his accomplishments on behalf of his decade of service to Illinois. As head coach from 1991-96, he owns the best Illinois winning percentage (25-31-2) in the past 20 years and had a pair of wins over Ohio State and the first by the Illini at Michigan in 27 years.

After serving as defensive coordinator for three years at LSU (1997-99), Tepper took the head coaching job at Edinboro, where he compiled a 40-26 record, including three Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) titles and two Division II playoff appearances. He was twice named PSAC West Coach of the Year.

He then moved on to Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 2006, where he led the Crimson Hawks to a 36-18 record, an NCAA appearance and was named PSAC West Coach of the Year for the third time. His final year at IUP was 2009.

A two-sport athlete in college (football and track and field), Tepper graduated from Rutgers University. He is married to the former Karen Olesewski and they are the parents of two children, Matthew and Stacy.

Jappy Oliver

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line
Purdue '78
Third Season at Buffalo

Jappy Oliver enters his third season as defensive line coach. In his first season, he coached a defensive line that had 23.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks.

His defensive line improved on those numbers in 2011 with 24 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks.

Oliver came to Buffalo after spending four years at Notre Dame as the Irish defensive line coach and boasts over 30 years of collegiate coaching experience.

From 2005-08, Oliver helped the growth of Irish defensive ends Victor Abiamiri and Chris Frome as well as defensive tackles Derek Landri and Trevor Laws. Abiamiri was a second-round pick in the 2007 NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles, while Landri was chosen that same year in the fifth round by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Laws was drafted by the Eagles in the second round of the 2008 draft and became the earliest Irish defensive tackle selected since Bryant Young was taken in the first round 14 years earlier. Frome was signed the day after the '07 draft as an undrafted free agent by the Chicago Bears and went to camp with the then-defending NFC champions. Oliver will also serve as the team's pro liaison.

Oliver spent 2003-04 as defensive line coach under former Irish head coach Lou Holtz at South Carolina, teaming with former Irish defensive coordinator Rick Minter to achieve a noteworthy turnaround on the defensive side in 2004 as the Gamecocks finished with a national ranking of 20th in total defense (315.18 yards per game).

Oliver previously served on the staff of Air Force's Fisher DeBerry for eight seasons from 1995 through 2002, helping the Falcons to five postseason bowl appearances including wins in the Oahu Bowl (1998) and the Silicon Valley Bowl (2000).

Oliver was a standout athlete at Southwestern High School in Flint, Mich., earning all-city and all-district accolades in both football and basketball. He was the city's athlete of the year in 1973 and captained teams in football, basketball and baseball.

He has one daughter, Candace, and a son, Justin.

Don Patterson

Quarterbacks/Recruiting Coordinator
Army '73
Second Season at Buffalo

Don Patterson enters his second season as quarterbacks coach at Buffalo. In his first year with the Bulls, Patterson coached Chazz Anderson who passed for 2,454 and 11 touchdowns on the season. Patterson also serves as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Patterson has a long and decorated coaching career, including tremendous success as a head coach at the Football Championship Series (FCS) level with Western Illinois. Patterson spent 10 seasons at Western Illinois, compiling a 62-45 overall record before illness forced him to step away from coaching for a year.

Patterson led the Leathernecks to three playoff berths, a pair of Gateway Football Conference titles and a No. 1 national ranking during his tenure. In his decade as head coach, Patterson produced 108 all-conference honorees, 34 academic all-conference selections, 59 All-Americans, including two consensus all-Americans, and two academic All-Americans.

Patterson came to Western Illinois after a 20-year run with famed Iowa head coach Hayden Fry, part of a coaching tree that includes Wisconsin's Bret Bielema, Iowa's Kirk Ferentz, Oklahoma's Bob Stoops and Arizona's Mike Stoops.

During his tenure at Iowa, the Hawkeyes appeared in 14 bowl games, including three Rose Bowls. The 1985 Iowa team was ranked No. 1 in the nation for five weeks, en route to a school-record 10 wins.

Under Patterson's guidance, the Iowa offense was explosive, leading the Big Ten in rushing (217.0 yards/game) and scoring (34.3 points/game) while finishing second in pass efficiency in 1997. Iowa finished the 1997 campaign ranked eighth in the nation in rushing offense and ninth in scoring, and had its highest pass efficiency ranking of any Iowa team since 1985.

Patterson was instrumental in Iowa's success, making the Hawkeyes one of only three Big Ten teams (also Ohio State and Michigan) to play in 14 bowl games during his tenure. Iowa appeared in the Rose Bowl after the 1981, 1985 and 1990 seasons, and made eight consecutive bowl appearances from 1981-88. The success of the Hawkeyes was immediate upon Patterson's arrival with Fry, evidenced by a Rose Bowl berth in their third season (1981), which was Iowa's first Rose Bowl appearance since 1958. Iowa ranked third among Big Ten teams in victories from 1979-98, and was one of three Big Ten teams to win more than 100 games between 1984-98.

From 1979-98 the Hawkeyes produced 38 first-team all-Big Ten selections, as well as six special teams first-teamers. Six Hawkeyes were first round NFL draft picks while five others were chosen in the second round and seven more in the third. Patterson directly coached five of Iowa's top seven career receivers, with the other two playing during his time. Prior to being named offensive coordinator, Patterson coached the Iowa tight ends - two of which, Marv Cook and Jonathan Hayes, enjoyed lengthy NFL careers.

Patterson was the last member of Fry's original Hawkeye staff. His association with Fry began in 1978 as an assistant at North Texas State coaching the defensive secondary. He joined Fry, serving in the same capacity, at Iowa in 1979. He served as recruiting coordinator in 1980 before coaching tight ends in 1981, a segment he coached until he began instructing quarterbacks and receivers in 1989.

The 1973 West Point graduate served on the cadet honor committee and was named to the highest-ranking cadet staff while at the Academy. He and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Brooke, who earned her doctorate in pharmacy from Purdue University.

Adam Shorter

Offensive Line/Run Game Coordinator
Cincinnati '04
Third Season at Buffalo

Adam Shorter begins his third season coaching the offensive linemen. He is also the Bulls' run game coordinator.

In 2011, as run game coorindator, Shorter helped coach Branden Oliver to a record-breaking season. The sophomore running back rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns.

He served in the same position at Delaware State in 2009.

He spent 2008 at Alcorn State, where he was in charge of the offensive line and tight ends. While with the Braves, Shorter was instrumental in the success of 2008 All-Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) offensive lineman Bronson Carvalho.

Shorter began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the University of Cincinnati (2005-2007). Shorter was a four-year letterman at Cincinnati, where he was the team's starting center. He was the recipient of the John Pease Award as the Bearcats most outstanding offensive lineman as a senior. Shorter appeared in three of Cincinnati's four bowl appearances during his tenure. He earned a bachelor's degree in integrated social studies in secondary education in 2004.

Shorter, who serves as UB's equiptment room liaison, acknowledges the contributions to both Mark Dantonio's and Brian Kelly's staff at Cincinnati as the program developed into a perennial top 20 team as his proudest accomplishment of his professional life.

As well as his role in the development of his players character and competitive greatness which he hopes carries through out their lives. . His hobbies are enjoying the outdoors, movies and spending time with family.

Adam and his wife Michelle have a daughter, Audrey.

Marty Spieler

Tight Ends/Co-Special Teams Coordinator
Allegheny '04
Third Season at Buffalo

Marty Spieler begins his third season coaching the tight ends and serving as special teams coordinator. in his first season he coached punt returner Terrell Jackson to an All-MAC First Team selection. Jackson went on to earned All-MAC honorable mention honors in 2011. Spieler also serves as the team's academic liaison.

Prior to coming to Buffalo, Spieler spent three seasons as an assistant at Cincinnati. He worked under coach Quinn handling extensive duties with practice and game plans and spent the spring of 2008 as the tight ends coach.

Prior to Cincinnati, Spieler spent one season as the offensive tackles and tight ends coach at Allegheny College - his alma mater. He also served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Southern.

He enjoys golf and lists earning his masters degree as the proudest moment of his personal life. The statement he feels reflects his life is "to become a success, fight one more round." He feels that UB offers "the opportunity to promote an atmosphere that our plays will succeed academically, athletically and socially."

Marty and his wife, Angela, have a son, Bryce.

Mike Dietzel

Safeties/Co-Special Teams Coordinator
Otterbein '85
Third Season at Buffalo

Mike Dietzel returns for his third season at Buffalo after coaching four All-MAC players in his first two seasons. Safeties Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook as well as punt returner Terrell Jackson earned the first-team All-MAC recognition in 2010 and Jackson was named All-MAC Honorable Mention in 2011.

Dietzel brought 24 years of coaching experience to Buffalo. He spent the previous seven years as a defensive coach at Western Kentucky, including three seasons as the Hilltoppers' defensive coordinator. His efforts helped the Hilltoppers finish 16th in the country in 2006 in pass defense while leading the Gateway Football Conference in that category as well as total defense. He also helped WKU post a 7-5 record in 2007, their first season in Division I-A football.

Dietzel has some familiarity with the MAC as he spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons as defensive coordinator at Kent State, including helping the Golden Flashes to their first winning season in 14 years in 2001.

He also spent seven years at Army, coaching running backs, wide receivers and tight ends during his time there. He was part of the 1996 staff that helped the Cadets go 10-2, the most wins in Army history.

He has also had coaching stints at Colorado, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Johns Hopkins and Earlham.

A 1985 graduate of Otterbein with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, Dietzel lettered four years, starting three, as a defensive back for the Cardinals. The native of Sharon, PA was selected honorable mention All-Ohio Athletic Conference as a senior.

The motto that reflects his life is "quality is never an accident. It is always the result of intelligent effort and willpower. "

He enjoys fishing and golfing and the proudest moment of his professional life was winning the Commander-in-Chief trophy at Army by defeating Navy in 1996.

He and his wife Jennifer have a son, Taylor.

Matt Simon

Running Backs
Eastern New Mexico '76
Second Season at Buffalo

Matt Simon enters his second season as running backs coach. He coached Branden Oliver to a record-breaking season in only his first season as running backs coach. Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns on the season.

Simon brought a tremendous resume built upon 11 years of coaching in the National Football League and 18 years at the collegiate level, including serving as the head coach at the University of North Texas for three seasons.

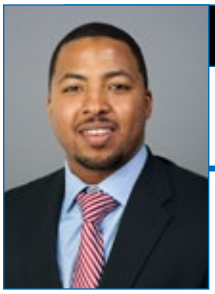
Simon began his coaching career at the University of Washington, serving under head coach Don James from 1981-92, a tenure that was highlighted when the Huskies claimed a share of the national championship in 1991. He coached three All-Americans at UW, including running backs Greg Lewis and Napoleon Kaufman.

He would go on to serve as offensive coordinator at New Mexico from 1992-94 where his offenses ranked 18th and 10th nationally in his two seasons. He would then be named head coach at the University of North Texas, where in his first season he would lead the Mean Green to the Southland Conference title and earn Conference and AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year honors.

After interning for one season with the Denver Broncos in 1998, Simon was named running backs coach with the Baltimore Ravens, where he contributed to tremendous success by the franchise, including helping the Ravens earn a Super Bowl title in 2000. He also helped lead Baltimore to playoff berths in 2001 and 2003, when the Ravens claimed their first AFC North title. With Baltimore he would coach Pro Bowler Jamal Lewis, who in 2003 under Simon's tutelage, would post the second-highest rushing total in NFL history when he rushed for 2,066 yards and scored 14 touchdowns.

His success with running backs would continue when he spent the 2007-08 seasons with the San Diego Chargers. There he would help LaDainian Tomlinson to his second NFL rushing title, while fumbling just once, and also tutored Pro Bowl fullback Lorenzo Neal and Darren Sproles, who would earn a Pro Bowl alternate invite as a return specialist.

He has spent the past two years as a professional football consultant and head coach at Gilmour Academy in Gates Mills, OH. He has worked with several players to prepare them for the Senior Bowl, NFL combine and NFL draft, including Detroit Lions 2010 first-round selection Jahvid Best.



Maurice Linguist

Secondary
Baylor '06
First Season at Buffalo

Maurice Linguist joins the staff at UB following a stay at James Madison, where he has spent the past three seasons, and had a outstanding playing career at Baylor University. Along with coaching the secondary, Linguist is the Bulls in the Community Coordinator.

Linguist spent the past three years at James Madison, coaching the safeties, and helped the Dukes to an 8-4 regular season record this past fall and an NCAA playoff appearance. In addition, The Sports Network selected the James Madison 2012 recruiting class as the best in the nation in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

Prior to James Madison, Linguist served as defensive backs and special teams coach at Valdosta (Ga.) State, helping the program to a 9-3 record and a ranking of No. 12 in Division II in 2008.

Linguist began his coaching career at his alma mater of Baylor, coaching strong safeties and rover backs as a graduate assistant in 2007. As a senior at Baylor, he was the Bears' defensive most valuable player as a strong safety, an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection and a second-team conference all-academic honoree. He played in 42 games, starting 24 at Baylor and was a four-year letterwinner for the Bears. He earned a bachelor's degree in communications and a masters degree in sports management from Baylor.

2011 IN REVIEW: A to Z

A for Alex Neutz, who emerged as one of the MAC's best receiving threats as a sophomore. Despite missing the final three games of the season, Neutz had 43 receptions for 641 yards and an impressive 14.9 yards per reception. He went over the 100-yard mark on three occasions.

B for Branden "Bo" Oliver. Oliver smashed three significant single-season records in a breakout campaign. Oliver set new marks for carries (306), rushing yards (1,395) and all-purpose yards (1,760 - including a Divison I-A record of 273 against Akron). He also led Buffalo with 13 touchdowns and set another school record with eight games over 100 yards rushing.

C for Corey Knox, one of UB's unsung heroes. Knox, who played only as a senior after competing on UB's track and field team for three years, was a bruising lead fullback who helped UB's offense average 155.0 yards per game on the ground.

D for the UB Defensive backfield. Ravaged after graduation to five seniors, including two first-team All-MAC selections, the Bulls' young group came through in fine style, ranking 36th in the nation in pass yards per game.

E for Elma, NY the hometown of three Bulls' players – Aaron Huber, Brandon Murie and Boomer Brock – who all played together at Iroquois High School.

F for Freshmen contributions. The Bulls had several major contributions from freshmen, perhaps none more impressive than first-year placekicker Patrick Clarke. Clarke took over kicking duties late in the season and did not miss an attempt – going 6-for-6 on field goals (including a 49-yarder) and 10-for-10 on PATs. He also recorded seven touchbacks as the Bulls' kickoff man.

G for Gordon DuBois, senior defensive end. Few Bulls showed more steady improvement over four years than the Andover, Mass. native. DuBois finished his senior year with 27 tackles, a career-best 3.5 tackles for loss and a pair of sacks.

H For Home field advantage. The Bulls were an extremely powerful offense in the friendly confines of UB Stadium. Buffalo averaged 30.8 points per game in home contests and went over 400 yards of total offense against both Ohio and Northern Illinois – the two teams that played in the MAC Championship game.

I for Illinois and Indiana (PA), two of the three universities that new defensive coordinator Lou Tepper has served as head coach. The Rutgers graduate coached the Illini from 1991-96, leading them to three bowl games.

J for punter Jacob Schum, who quietly had a tremendous season. Schum averaged 39.0 yards per punt but as importantly, his booming punts resulted in 24 fair catches and 11 of his punts were downed inside the 20. That means that more than half of his 61 total punts were not returned or downed inside the opposition 20-yard line.

K for Khalil Mack. The Fort Pierce, FL native became UB's first underclassmen to earn All-American status, earning honorable mention honors from Sports Illustrated. Mack finished the season ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss (20.5) and tied for eighth nationally with five forced fumbles. Tennessee coach Derek Dooley called him "a train wreck on an offense."

L for Lackawanna, NY native Marcus Rivers. A senior wideout, Rivers earned second-team All-MAC honors by leading UB with 60 receptions for 615 yards. After the season, Rivers was invited to play in the Players All-Star Classic in Little Rock, Ark. and caught a 25-yard touchdown pass.

M for senior tackle Matt Ostrowski, who returned from a compound fracture of his left leg which cost him most of his junior season to start all 12 games as a senior. His efforts at left tackle allowed Branden Oliver to run for a single-season rushing record.

N for Najja Johnson, sophomore cornerback and former walk-on who received all-conference accolades from Phil Steele Magazine. Johnson led the Bulls with 16 passes defended (one interception and 15 pass breakups), a figure that ranked first in the MAC and eighth in the nation in his first season as a starter.

O for Offensive explosion. In the Bulls' 51-point outburst against Akron, Buffalo scored the most points ever in a Mid-American Conference game and the most since 1992.

P for a Pick six. Junior defensive end Steven Means picked off a screen pass and returned it 42 yards for his first career touchdown vs. Bowling Green and the Bulls only touchdown return in 2011. It was Means' second career interception.

Q for Quick strike. In its first home game of 2011, the Bulls scored a touchdown on the very first play from scrimmage against Stony Brook when quarterback Chazz Anderson hit sophomore tight end Alex Dennison for a 57-yard touchdown. It was also the first career catch for Dennison, a converted quarterback.

R for Richie to the rescue. Senior nose tackle Richie Smith had a very productive senior season with 45 tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss, but no play was bigger than his fourth down sack in the final three minutes of Ohio quarterback Tyler Tettleton to preserve a 38-37 home win.

S for Sophomores and superb play. The Bulls have never had such a plethora of post-season honors for a sophomore class. Khalil Mack and Branden Oliver became just the third and fourth sophomores to earn first-team All-MAC honors (joining Davonte Shannon and James Starks), while classmates Alex Neutz and Najja Johnson also earned post-season All-MAC honors from Phil Steele Magazine.

T for Terrell Jackson. The senior receiver earned All-MAC honors for the second straight year as a return man, despite having his season cut short with a neck injury suffered at Temple. Jackson become the school's career leader both kickoff returns (86) and yardage (1,620). He also finished in career punt return yardage with 278.

U for Underclassmen. The Bulls will return 17 of 22 starters in 2012 as Buffalo loses only two offensive starters (Matt Ostrowski and Chazz Anderson) and three defensive (Richie Smith, Fred Branch and Josh Copeland).

2011 GAME RECAPS

PITTSBURGH 35, BUFFALO 16

SEPT. 3, 2011 • HEINZ FIELD • PITTSBURGH, PA

Second-year head coach Jeff Quinn told the assembled media back in August that this was not last year's Bulls. In the 2011 opener at Big East power Pittsburgh, Buffalo proved it.

Fighting through the adversity of opening on the road in front of over 48,000 fans and trailing throughout the contest, the Bulls showed uncommon fight and determination, constantly rebounding when things looked bleak before finally succumbing to Pittsburgh, 35-16 at Heinz Field.

Similar to the Bulls contest here in 2008, Buffalo was down by less than a touchdown inside the final 12 minutes before the Panthers could put things away.

The Bulls got several outstanding offensive performances in the game. Senior quarterback Chazz Anderson completed 32-of-49 passes for 276 yards and ran for a touchdown in his first career game. Anderson's 49 attempts are seventh all-time for a single game and the second most in UB's Division I-A era. His 32 completions are tied for third behind only all-time leading passer Drew Willy (who had 34 at Kent State, 11/24/07 and 33 at Miami (11/3/07).

Sophomore tailback Branden Oliver had a career-high 114 yards rushing on 35 carries, becoming the first UB running back to go over 100 yards since the final game of the 2009 season. His 35 carries were the fifth most in school history.

Sophomore receiver Alex Neutz had a career-best 10 catches for 108 yards – the first player since Marcus Rivers last year against Rhode Island to have 10 catches in a game and go over 100 yards receiving.

Pittsburgh was not able to put the game away until the Bulls misfired on a fourth down pass in the final three minutes four minutes from the Pitt 12-yard line and tack on a late touchdown. The final drive was set up by a sack and forced fumble by sophomore Khalil Mack, who had a monster game. Mack, a freshman All-American last year, had five tackles, a sack, two tackles for loss, a forced fumble and three quarterback hurries.

The UB offense got untracked in the second half behind Anderson and Oliver as Buffalo was only outgained 410-403 total yards by the Panthers, picked to finish second in the Big East by the media.

The Bulls defense started the game in a difficult spot as Pittsburgh's Buddy Jackson returned the opening kickoff 52 yards to the Bulls' 40-yard line. However, the UB defense made a huge early statement, limiting the Panthers to just two yards and forcing a punt.

The Bulls picked up a pair of first downs on their first series, behind the powerful running of Oliver – who had 23 yards on three carries – but could not continue the drive into scoring territory and were forced to punt.

The Panthers took that second series and dented the scoreboard first. Zach Brown finished an eight play, 54-yard drive with a six yard touchdown run. With 9:10 left on the clock. After the PAT, the Panthers led 7-0.

Despite an overwhelming advantage in plays and yards in the first quarter, the UB defense bent but did not break in keeping the Panthers off the scoreboard. Three times during drives that started in the first quarter, the Panthers pierced the UB 40-yard line without scoring. Twice the Bulls forced punts and the third time, a sack by sophomore Colby Way stopped a Pitt drive at the Bulls' 15-yard line. Kevin Harper's 32-yard field goal missed and the score remained 7-0 early in the second quarter.

The Bulls defense came up big again midway through the second quarter on another lengthy (12 plays) Pitt drive. On a third and nine play, Fred Branch and Josh Copeland snuffed out a screen pass for a short gain and Harper missed his second straight field goal, this time from 47 yards out.

The Bulls then responded offensively. Senior quarterback Chazz Anderson heated up on the following drive, connecting on four straight passes – two of them for 20 yards total to Neutz – as UB moved into field goal range. Senior Peter Fardon came in to boot his first career field goal from 40 yards out to cut the Pitt lead to 7-3 with 4:33 left in the half.

Despite running 17 less plays than the Panthers, Buffalo went to halftime trailing just 7-3.

The first big play of the game came on Buffalo's first possession of the second half. After strong running by Oliver moved UB to the Pitt 31-yard line, Anderson's screen pass was intercepted by Chas Alecxih and returned to the UB 20-yard line. It was the first turnover of the game by either team.

Two Ray Graham runs later, the first for 17 and the second from three yards out, and the Panthers were in the end zone for the second time. After the PAT, the Panthers led 14-3 with 10:01 left in the third.

If it looked like the Bulls might fold, however, they quickly reminded everyone that this was a new year.

Behind Anderson's senior leadership and the hard running of Oliver, the Bulls drove 76 yards on 13 plays to get themselves right back in it. Oliver ran for 21 yards and Anderson used his feet and legs to get the Bulls in the end zone. Anderson completed four-of-five passes for 29 yards, added a 13-yard run for a first down and then covered the final two yards for the first touchdown of the season. With 4:22 left on the clock, the Bulls trailed 14-10.

However, the Panthers had an answer of their own, driving 74 yards in eight plays, capped by a five-yard touchdown run by Ray Graham, to make the score 21-10 with 2:29 left in the third quarter.

Again the Bulls offense responded. An 11-yard completion to Fred Lee and a 15-yard facemask penalty quickly put the Bulls at the Pittsburgh 38-yard line. After a clutch five-yard pass from Anderson to tight end Jimmy Gordon on third-and-four, Neutz made an incredible leaping catch while tip-toeing the right sideline for a 20-yard completion to the Pitt three-yard line. Two plays later, Oliver scored his first career touchdown, driving in from one yard out. The Bulls went for two points unsuccessfully and trailed 21-16 with 13:27 left in the game.

Unfortunately for a game Bulls team, the Panthers had just enough left in the tank to pull away in the final 13 minutes.

BUFFALO 35, STONY BROOK 7

SEPT. 10, 2011 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

If the first play of the home slate is any indicator of the season, the Buffalo football team has some exciting things in store for their fans this year.

Tight end Alex Dennison hauled in a perfectly thrown 57-yard touchdown pass from Chazz Anderson on UB's first play from scrimmage and the Bulls never looked back in a 35-7 win over Stony Brook before 21,933 fans, the seventh largest home crowd in school history.

Sophomore tailback Branden Oliver continued his tremendous early-season play by rushing for a career-best 126 yards and three long touchdowns (22, 43 and 49 yards) as the Bulls featured a balanced attack that averaged 7.4 yards per play.

Khalil Mack was a one-man wrecking crew for the UB defense. Mack finished with eight tackles, one sack, 3.5 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles, an interception and three quarterback hurries.

Anderson connected on 15-of-22 passes for 164 yards and two touchdowns on the day, including the first career TD catch by redshirt-freshman Devon Hughes – who led the Bulls with four receptions for 33 yards.

Before even the first play from scrimmage things started well for the Bulls as Terrell Jackson returned the opening kickoff 53 yards to set up the touchdown throw to Dennison.

However, the Seawolves would come back and tie the score at 7-7 before the Bulls reeled off the game's final 28 points. Oliver got it started by bursting 22 yards for his first score of the game to cap a 13-play, 74-yard drive immediately after Stony Brook had tied the game.

Oliver found the end zone again late in the second quarter on a third-and-seven draw play, which he bounced to the outside and went 49 yards to paydirt.

The Bulls went to halftime up 21-7 and then came out and dominated the second half, holding the Seawolves off the board. Hughes caught a 15-yard pass from Anderson on a post pattern and Oliver capped a terrific night with a 43-yard burst that finished his night and put away Stony Brook.

Stony Brook would threaten one more time midway through the fourth quarter, driving to the Bulls three-yard line. However, Mack would snuff that drive out with a sack and forced fumble that was recovered by teammate Fred Branch at the UB 20-yard line.

The Bulls had three sacks on the night and nine tackles for loss for 31 yards. Colby Way and Steven Means added sacks for the Bulls, while cornerback Najja Johnson had a career-best six tackles.

BALL STATE 28, BUFFALO 25

SEPT. 17, 2011 • SCHEUMANN STADIUM • MUNCIE, IN

It was a tale of two halves and a couple of key plays in Buffalo's Mid-American Conference opener at Ball State on Saturday night.

The Bulls rallied from a 21-7 halftime deficit, scoring 18 straight points, but saw a missed PAT and several crucial fourth down conversions by Ball State on its final drive spell the difference in a heartbreaking 28-25 loss in front of 8,694 fans at Scheumann Stadium.

Buffalo went to halftime trailing by two touchdowns after a dominant first half performance by the host Cardinals. Ball State had 250 first-half yards and after spotting Buffalo an early touchdown score three straight touchdowns and looked to be in command of the game.

But it was a different Bulls team that took the field in the second half. Led by tailback Branden Oliver – who went over 100 yards for the third straight game – quarterback Chazz Anderson, who threw for one score and ran for another, and a swarming defense, UB looked primed to win on the road against a West Division opponent for the first time in its MAC history.

However, after Anderson's second rushing touchdown of the season from one yard out gave the Bulls a 25-21 lead with 6:28 remaining in the game, Buffalo could not get the key defensive stop it needed to secure the win. The Cardinals were able to move 75 yards on 18 time-consuming plays to score the game-winner on a four-yard pass with just :29 left.

The key to the drive was a pair of fourth-down and long conversions that kept the drive alive. The Bulls had one more chance, but Anderson's Hail Mary on the game's final play was knocked down and UB fell to 1-2 on the season and 0-1 in the MAC play.

Oliver finished the game with 118 yards on 27 carries, while Anderson ran for 59 yards on 10 carries and threw for 149 yards and a touchdown. Marcus Rivers had six catches for 74 yards and Alex Neutz added 78 yards on four catches with both reaching the end zone.

Defensively, the Bulls allowed just 150 yards in the second half and half of them came on the Cardinals final drive as their play allowed UB to climb back in the game. Linebacker Khalil Mack continued his stellar play with a career-high 11 tackles, including two for losses, while Jaleel Verser also added a career-best 11 tackles. Cornerback Najja Johnson also had an outstanding game with four tackles and four passes broken up, just one shy of the school record.

After Ball State missed a field goal on the first drive of the second half, the Bulls got themselves back in the game on Ball State's next drive on a big special teams play. Junior Jaleel Verser broke through on a punt attempt and recorded a block that changed the momentum. On first down, Anderson carried for 13 yards on a quarterback scramble and two plays later, Oliver broke through two tackles and drove into the end zone from 10 yards out. However, the PAT was blocked and Buffalo trailed 21-13. It would turn out to be a costly miss.

After a defensive stop for the Bulls, on a solo tackle by Khalil Mack, on a third-and-one, the Bulls looked poised to score again. Anderson connected twice with sophomore wideout Neutz for a total of 26 yards and Anderson added a career-long 20 yard scramble to move the ball inside the Ball State 30-yard line. However, a sack on third down knocked the Bulls out of field goal range and they were forced to punt.

However, the Bulls were unbowed. The defense again forced a three-and-out and after a 17-yard return by Terrell Jackson, Anderson went up top and hit Neutz for a 45-yard touchdown pass down the left sideline on the first play. It was Neutz' first touchdown of the season. However, the try for two points was incomplete and UB trailed, 21-19 with 13:58 left in the game.

Another defensive stand, on three straight incompletions by Ball State, would set up UB's longest drive of the season as Buffalo drove 86 yards in 14 plays to take its first lead since the first quarter. Anderson had an 18-yard carry and Oliver a 17-yard burst to get the drive moving. Oliver burst 16 yards on a and second-and-17 to play and bulled forward for a first down on third-and-one to set UB up in position for Anderson to sneak across from a yard out behind center Graham Whinery and left guard Dillon Guy.

However, Ball State had some dramatic plays left in them and were able to send their fans home jubilant with a last-second touchdown.

It looked like it might be Buffalo's night early on as UB struck quickly on its first drive of the game. Marcus Rivers was the star of Buffalo's first possession catching a 24-yard pass from Anderson to get the chains moving, and completing the drive on a 27-yard touchdown catch on a flanker reverse with Terrell Jackson throwing the strike for paydirt. It was Rivers' first touchdown of the season.

The Cardinals would tie the game early in the second quarter on a 72-yard drive. Ball State tailback Jahwan Edwards was the central figure on the drive and capped the drive with an eight-yard touchdown run with 14:11 left in the half.

Ball State would take their first lead of the game on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Keith Wenning to Brooks Orsbon with 4:39 left in the half. Wenning and Orsbon had a 21-yard hookup earlier in the drive.

CONNECTICUT 17, BUFFALO 3

SEPT. 24, 2011 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

Buffalo head coach Jeff Quinn often quotes legendary football coach Vince Lombardi who said that a football game often comes down to five or six plays and who makes them.

Saturday night at UB Stadium that was exactly the case as, despite outgaining Big East foe Connecticut by a 319-293 margin, the Bulls dropped a 17-3 decision before 18,215 fans.

The keys to the game were two 60-plus yard catches by Nick Williams, one which went for a score and the other set up UConn's first touchdown, and the fact that the Bulls were only to score three points despite being inside the Huskies 35-yard line on four occasions.

The Bulls were just one-for-three in the red zone, missing a field goal in the first quarter and throwing an interception in the third quarter when it appeared they were ready to tie the game.

With the Huskies leading by a 10-3 score, quarterback Chazz Anderson threw a gorgeous pass down the right sideline to sophomore Alex Neutz, who bobbled and then caught the ball for a 45-yard gain to the Huskies six-yard line. However, on third and goal, Anderson's pass for Neutz was intercepted in the end zone. A flag was thrown for interference, but the officials ruled that the interference occurred after the interception.

The Bulls had another chance to tie the game early in the fourth quarter after another defensive stop that gave Buffalo the ball at their own 40-yard line with 14:18 left. A 16-yard burst by tailback Branden Oliver – who had 84 yards on 23 tough carries – on third-and-one set the Bulls up at the Huskies 35-yard line. However, a sack on Anderson, one of three UConn had in the game, ended that drive and Buffalo had to punt.

The Huskies put the game away when Williams caught a slant pass, broke a tackle and went 49 yards for the touchdown with 4:52 left in the game.

The loss spoiled a tremendous defensive effort by the Bulls, who limited a potent Connecticut rushing attack to just 80 yards. In fact, outside of the two long catches by Williams, UB gave up just 180 yards of offense.

The Bulls' defense recorded a season-best seven tackles for loss in the game added four quarterback hurries, including three by sophomore linebacker Kahlil Mack. Mack had another tremendous game, racking up seven tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss, a sack and three quarterback hurries.

Senior linebacker Fred Branch added a career-high 10 tackles, while fellow inside linebacker Lee Skinner had nine tackles and broke up a pass. Senior defensive end Gordon DuBois had one of the best games of his career with 2.5 tackles for loss including a sack.

Offensively, senior receiver Marcus Rivers had nine catches for 94 yards and Neutz added 83 yards on five catches. Anderson completed 18-of-39 passes for 193 yards and added 35 yards rushing.

TENNESSEE 41, BUFFALO 10

OCT. 1, 2011 • NEYLAND STADIUM • KNOXVILLE, TN

University of Tennessee quarterback Tyler Bray is already drawing comparisons to all-time UT great Peyton Manning. You wouldn't get an argument from the Buffalo Bulls after Saturday's 41-10 loss to the Volunteers at Neyland Stadium before 87,758 fans.

Bray was on target for 342 yards and four touchdowns while completing 21-of-30 passes on the day. The 6-6 sophomore looked very Manning-esque as UT used their superior speed to make too many big plays in the passing game for the Bulls to keep it close. It was the tenth straight game that the sophomore has thrown for at least two touchdowns.

Bray was particularly effective on third down as the Vols were a sterling 12-of-16 on third down conversions in the game, while the Bulls converted just 3-of-13 opportunities

Trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, the Bulls got a huge momentum change when UB senior quarterback Chazz Anderson faked a handoff and raced 68 yards untouched to the end zone to cut the lead to 14-7 after the PAT. It was the longest run of his career and the longest touchdown run by a quarterback in UB's Division I-A history.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Bulls recovered a bobbled kickoff with special teams ace Brandon Murie falling on the loose ball at the UT 21-yard line.

That momentum was squelched quickly, however, by a stingy Tennessee defense. A sack of Anderson and two incompletions let to a partially blocked 44-yard field goal attempt by Peter Fardon that could have cut into the Volunteers lead. Tennessee then responded by driving 63 yards for a field goal that extended the lead to 17-7.

That missed opportunity was the last real chance the Bulls would have to pull the colossal upset at historic Neyland Stadium as the Vols improved to 3-1 on the season while Buffalo fell to 1-4.

The Volunteers wasted no time in denting the scoreboard. On a punt after Buffalo's first possession, Devrin Young returned the kick 43 yards past midfield. From there, the Vols took just three plays to go 48 yards with the capper being a 20-yard run on a reverse by Rajion Neal with 11:58 left in the first quarter. That set the tone for the game as the Volunteers offense was too much for UB all day – racking up 541 yards, the most given up by the Bulls this season.

One bright spot for Buffalo was that the kickoff team forced a pair of fumbles. In the second half, sophomore Jimmy Gordon stripped the ball from returner Devrin Young that Shaquille Dudley recovered at the Vols' 30-yard line. However, the Bulls could not convert either turnover into points.

Anderson finished the game with 79 yards rushing on just seven attempts as the Bulls were able to run for 148 yards in the game. Sophomore Branden Oliver added 58 yards on 18 carries. Cornerback Najja Johnson had an excellent game for the Bulls, recording a career-high seven tackles and breaking up three passes. Senior linebacker Fred Branch added 10 tackles (including eight solo stops), while cornerback Courtney Lester added a career-high seven tackles and his first career sack.

BUFFALO 38, OHIO 37

OCT. 8, 2011 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

The Buffalo football team had been in this position before this season, looking to preserve a back-and-forth struggle between two Mid-American Conference opponents.

But it was a measure of the growth the Bulls have made that on this day, despite four lead changes and huge momentum swings against the previously 4-1 Ohio Bobcats, the Bulls not only found a way to come back but how to hold on to a crucial 38-37 MAC win before 15,051 fans at UB Stadium

The win occurred because of a tremendous 18-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with Branden Oliver going over from one yard out on fourth down to give the Bulls a 38-34 lead. It was decided until Ohio quarterback Tyler Tettleton was sacked by senior defensive tackle Richie Smith for a nine-yard loss on fourth down at the Bobcat 39-yard line.

The heroes were abundant for the Bulls, whose offense broke out of a two-game slump with a huge day, racking up 510 yards of total offense, the most since an overtime game at Western Michigan in 2009.

Sophomore tailback Branden Oliver was an absolute workhorse for UB, running for a career-best 179 yards on 34 carries, scoring three rushing touchdowns and adding five receptions for 43 yards. Senior quarterback Chazz Anderson had a career-best 343 yards passing and a pair of touchdowns, while senior flanker Ed Young had a career-best 135 yards receiving on five receptions.

It was an historic play by Young that helped the Bulls recapture the second-half momentum in a game that went back and forth for four quarters. After Ohio had taken its first lead of the game, 31-24, on a 67-yard reverse by LaVon Brazill, the Bulls took just one play to respond. Young took a swing pass from Anderson, got a great block from wide receiver Marcus River, and burst 90 yards to tie the game

Ohio would strike back after a huge kick return, but the Bulls would surrender just a field goal after the Bobcats started the drive at the UB 48-yard line. The combination of Steven Means and Khalil Mack combined for a sack to force the OU field goal that gave the Bobcats a 34-31 lead with 14:19 left in the game. Means, who had a root canal on Friday and was questionable for the game, finished with four tackles, a quarterback hurry and 1.5 tackles for loss and inspired his teammates with his play. Mack, among the nation's leaders in forced fumbles and tackles for lost, was his usual self with five tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss, a quarterback hurry and his fourth forced fumble of the year.

Trailing by a field goal, the Bulls got the ball back at their own 29-yard line. On the longest drive of the year in terms of plays, the Bulls converted three third downs and a fourth down to take the lead. It nearly never got started as on the first play, Oliver fumbled by guard Andre Davis was able to fall on it and keep the drive alive. Oliver would be the key to the drive, rushing for 14 yards on a third down play, catching a pass for another first down and finally driving in from the one-yard line on fourth down.

Even after the score, however, Ohio had fight in them. After another huge kickoff return, this time to the Bulls' 22-yard line, the UB defense stepped up after a huge Ohio mistake The Bobcats were charged with a chop block at the five-yard line, setting them back to the UB 21-yard line where the Bulls stepped up and forced a field goal.

After Buffalo was stopped on downs, punter Jacob Schum helped flip the field with a gorgeous 48-yard punt that was fair caught at the Ohio 19-yard line. On fourth-and-five at the Ohio 39, Smith got the biggest sack of his career to win it for the Bulls. The Pen Argyl, PA native tied a career high with seven tackles, including six solo stops.

The tenor of the game was set early that there were going to be plenty of offensive fireworks. The Bulls struck first on their second possession. Buffalo moved down the field with a beautiful blend of passing and rushing, traveling 60 yards in eight plays and capped by a 12-yard touchdown burst up the middle by tailback Branden Oliver with 8:58 left in the first.

The drive featured five runs and three passes, including 3-of-3 passing by Anderson including a 16-yard strike to Alex Neutz. Ed Young had a 10-yard catch and a crucial six-yard carry on third down to keep the drive alive.

It took Ohio just over a minute to tie the score, buoyed by a 67-yard kickoff return by Donte Harden. Just three plays later Harden took it in from 13 yards out and the PAT tied the score at 7-7 with 7:42 left in the first.

The Bulls regained the lead on the longest drive of the season, traveling 88 yards on 13 plays. Anderson was brilliant on the drive, completing six-of-seven passes for 74 yards, including a 28-yard strike to Terrell Jackson that took the ball inside the one-yard line where Oliver would rumble in from a yard out.

After an exchange of field goals, the Bulls went to halftime with a 24-17 lead. It would take all the Bulls had in the second half to hold off a very good Ohio team.

TEMPLE 34, BUFFALO 0

OCT. 15, 2011 • LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • PHILADELPHIA, PA

The University at Buffalo football team ran into a buzzsaw on Saturday at Lincoln Financial Field.

The Temple Owls dominated in every phase of the game in registering a 34-0 win over the Bulls in a Mid-American Conference clash. The Owls improved to 5-2 and 3-1 in conference play, while the Bulls fell to 2-5 overall and 1-2 in the MAC. Buffalo will host Northern Illinois next Saturday at 12 noon at UB Stadium.

Bernard Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in touchdowns with his two first-half scores, and the junior finished with 152 yards on 23 carries to lead an Owl offense that ran for 400 yards in the game.

"There was very little that we did right today," said head coach Jeff Quinn. "We've got a lot to learn from it, it was a difficult day on that field. Hopefully our kids will grow and develop and understand from one week to the next its all about your preparation and executing the game plan."

Josh Copeland led the Bulls defense with 11 tackles (nine solos) – the second straight week the senior has gone into double digits. Sophomore defensive end Kristjan Sokoli recorded a career best 1.5 tackles for loss. Buffalo struggled offensively throughout the game, being shutout by the Owls for the second straight season.

The Owls opened the scoring on the game's first possession on a 28-yard field goal by Brandon McManus. It capped a 70-yard drive in 14 plays that took 7:50 off the first quarter clock. Buffalo safety Josh Copeland made a crucial third down stop on the MAC's leading rusher Bernard Pierce to halt the drive.

The second Owls scored summed up the game. Pierce was hit three yards behind the line of scrimmage on a third and goal, but broke the tackle and went around left end untouched to make the score 10-0.

The Bulls had two drives in the first half inside the Temple 25-yard line but neither resulted in points. The Bulls were stopped on a fourth down on one and placekicker Peter Fardon's attempt from 39 yards out was blocked.

The Bulls hung tough for most of the rest of the first half but a special teams gamble by the Owls was a backbreaker. Facing a fourth and three at the Bulls' 49-yard line, Ahkeem Smith took a direct snap and burst 49 yards through the left side of the line to effectively put the game out of reach at 24-0 going into the half.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS 31, BUFFALO 30

OCT. 22, 2011 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

On days like this, football can seem the cruelest game.

The University at Buffalo football team made one of its greatest comebacks in its Division I history, nearly erasing a 21-point fourth quarter deficit, including scoring what appeared to be the touchdown to send the game into overtime against perennial Mid-American Conference power Northern Illinois.

And then just like that, with the miss of an extra point, Buffalo found itself a 31-30 loser, despite a 572-328 advantage in total offense and an astounding 33-15 edge in first downs. In the end, Buffalo's five turnovers, including some crucial miscues on special teams, spelled the one point difference in a loss to the Huskies, who improved to 5-3 overall and 3-1 in the MAC.

Buffalo lost despite one of its finest efforts on offense since joining the MAC in 1999. Senior quarterback Chazz Anderson had an all-time record-breaking afternoon. He completed a school-record 35 passes (on 53 attempts, the fourth highest-total in school history) for a Division I-A record 404 yards, the eighth best total in school history. In addition, his 460 yards of total offense are the most by a UB player since joining the MAC and second only to Cliff Scott all time (who accounted for 536 yards versus New Haven in 1992) Anderson accounted for four touchdowns, throwing three and running for another.

His favorite target on the day was Marcus Rivers who matched his career-high with 10 catches for 114 yards, while Alex Neutz had nine receptions for a career-best 135 yards. The two became the first Bulls' players since Naaman Roosevelt and Brett Hamlin went over 100 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 2009.

Tailback Branden Oliver had another monster game as well. The sophomore ran for 112 yards on 26 carries – to go over 100 yards for the fifth time this season – two off the school record of seven. He added a career-best seven receptions for 82 yards to account for 194 all-purpose yards.

The Buffalo defense, meanwhile, held the potent NIU offense that averaged over 412 yards per game to just 328 yards. Freshman linebacker Lee Skinner had a career-high 10 tackles to lead that unit, while another freshman, Cortney Lester added nine tackles and two pass breakups. Both Jaleel Verser and Khalil Mack had two tackles for loss as the Bulls racked up seven in the game.

It looked bleak for the Bulls early in the second half. After trailing 17-10 at intermission, the Huskies extended the lead to 31-10 on two quick touchdowns to start the second half and it stayed that way into the fourth quarter.
That's when the Bulls offense kicked into another gear, scoring three times in four fourth quarter possessions, keeping each drive alive with crucial fourth down conversions. Buffalo was 4-for-4 on fourth down conversions on the day, none bigger than a fourth-and-four left-handed throw from Anderson to Ed Young for 18 yards that set up an eventual five-yard touchdown pass from Anderson to Neutz with 12:38 left in the game.

After Buffalo's defensive forced two straight three-and-outs, Buffalo scored again on a four-play 55-yard drive. This time it was Rivers who made a touchdown catch in the right corner of the end zone on a gorgeous throw from Anderson. Now UB trailed, 31-24, after the PAT, with 4:14 remaining.

The UB defense again did not give up a first down and got the Bulls the ball back at their own 12-yard line with 2:49 remaining. Anderson coolly took his team down the field, completing a clutch fourth-and-10 pass to Neutz for 16 yards on a slant pattern to keep the drive alive. Another Anderson throw for 15 yards to Rivers gave Buffalo first-and-goal and, the Bulls pulled within one point when Anderson hit Ed Young from three yards out with just :14 left.

However the pandemonium last only a few seconds as the missed PAT would deny the chance for the Bulls to force overtime and pull the upset over the heavily-favored Huskies.

MIAMI 41, BUFFALO 13

OCT. 29, 2011 • YAGER STADIUM • OXFORD, OH

Miami quarterback Zac Dysert helped the RedHawks claim a Mid-American Conference championship last season.

On a day when he moved into the Top 20 career MAC passers in yardage, he played like one of the MAC's all-time best, riddling the UB defense by completing 20-of-25 passes for 313 yards and a school-record five touchdowns to lead Miami to a 41-13 Homecoming win over Buffalo.

Dysert started the game on fire, completing his first nine passes, and leading Miami on three scoring drives which set the tone for the game.

The Bulls would get no closer than 14-13 after matching the RedHawks first two scores. However, the usually reliable UB running game struggled all afternoon, accounting for a season-low 77 yards on 34 carries.

Quarterback Chazz Anderson had another solid outing for UB, completing 24-of-41 passes for 281 yards and accounting for both touchdowns, a one-yard run and a 60-yard strike to Alex Neutz, who had four receptions for 110 yards before being injured. Neutz hurt his wrist and left the game in the second quarter and did not return.

Senior receiver Marcus Rivers added seven receptions for 69 yards for Buffalo, while Devon Hughes had a career-high four receptions for 33 yards.

The UB defense was led by senior linebacker Fred Branch who racked up 10 tackles, including eight solo stops. Lee Skinner added a pair of tackles for loss for the Bulls.

The first quarter of the game turned into a track meet as the two teams combined for 34 points and scored on each of their possessions.

The RedHawks pounced on the Bulls early, marking the third straight week that UB's opponent has scored first. Dawan Scott caught a 71-yard touchdown pass from Zac Dysert on the game's second play as Miami led 7-0 with 14:22 left in the first quarter.

The Bulls did not wait long to respond. On UB's first drive, after a first down connection on third down from Anderson to Neutz kept the the drive alive, Anderson dialed Neutz up long distance for a 60-yard strike down the left sideline. After the PAT by Pete Fardon, the game was tied at 7-7 with 11:34 left in the first.

After another Miami score, the Bulls again used the Anderson to Neutz connection to get into scoring range. First, Anderson hit Marcus Rivers on a pretty 29-yard completion down the right sideline, before finding Neutz on the other side of the field for a 34-yard connection to the Miami three-yard line. Three plays later, Anderson snuck in from the one-yard line. However, a missed PAT left the score at 14-13.

The RedHawks would take the lead for good with a score on their third straight possession late in the first half when Dysert threw his third score of the game and finished the first quarter 9-for-9 through the air.

The RedHawks would go to halftime with a 28-13 lead and never allowed the Bulls to get any closer.

EASTERN MICHIGAN 30, BUFFALO 17

NOV. 12, 2011 • RYNEARSON STADIUM • YPSILANTI, MI

Had Buffalo head coach Jeff Quinn known that his team would have held Eastern Michigan's vaunted running game to less than 180 yards he would have felt very good about his team's chances of winning at Rynearson Stadium.

What he didn't count on was EMU quarterback Alex Gillett completing 10-of-15 passes for 234 yards and four touchdowns. That factor was the difference as the Eagles twice overcame second half deficits to defeat the Bulls, 30-17 before 3,830 fans.

The Bulls wasted another superb effort by sophomore tailback Branden Oliver and a stout defensive effort against the run, including a career-high eight tackles by sophomore defensive end Colby Way and a game-high 10 tackles by junior linebacker Jaleel Verser. Too many defensive breakdowns and six sacks given up by the offense outshone the positives.

Oliver became just the fifth Bulls player in history to go over 1,000 yards in a season and did in dramatic style. The sophomore burst through a hole on the right side midway through the third quarter and ran untouched 68 yards for a touchdown. He joined James Starks (twice), O.D. Underwood, Alan Bell and Anthony Swan as the only Bulls to do so. His touchdown gave the Bulls a 17-16 lead in a back and forth second half that started with Oliver giving UB its first lead.

The sophomore from Miami, FL, who finished with 133 yards on 18 carries, capped a 58-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run to give Buffalo a 10-9 lead with 8:59 left in the third quarter. Oliver had a 19-yard run earlier in the drive, while flanker Ed Young had an 11-yard run on a reverse.

Eastern would retake the lead on a 67-yard pass from Gillett to Demarius Reed on the next possession. The Bulls responded in quick strike fashion when Oliver burst through a hole on the right side created by right tackle Gokhan Ozkan, tight end Aaron Connacher and wideout Marcus Rivers going a career-long 68 yards for the score. Oliver now has 1,033 yards on the season, the fifth-best total in school history.

However, the Eagles, who improved to 6-4 on the year and 4-2 in the Mid-American Conference, had an answer. Gillett connected again with Reed, this time from 11 yards out and EMU had the lead back for good. Gillett would add a 34-yard score to Garrett Hoskins, his second of the day to close the scoring.

UB quarterback Chazz Anderson would 18-of-31 passes for 137 yards but was sacked a season-high six times. His favorite target was Devon Hughes, who had a career-high five receptions for 33 yards. UB struggled badly on third down in the game, going 1-for-13, while EMU was 7-for-16.

Defensively for the Bulls, inside linebacker Lee Skinner and Fred Branch added eight tackles apiece as the Bulls did not allow a 100-yard rusher against Eastern's running game, which came in ranked 15th in the country.

The Bulls were greatly outgained in the first quarter but emerged trailing just 3-0 due to outstanding punting by senior Jacob Schum into a stiff breeze. Buffalo was outgained 98-21 but the only scoring was a 38-yard field goal by Kody Fulkerson with 7:04 left in the first quarter.

EMU extended the lead early in the second quarter when Gillett hit Hoskins from two yards out. The drive stayed alive due to a pair of interference calls against the Bulls. The PAT was blocked by Steven Means and the score remained 9-0 with 11:50 left in the half.

The Bulls cut into the lead with an excellent two-minute drill drive to end the first half. Buffalo drove 62 yards in 13 plays with Anderson completing six passes, including two for 27 yards to Oliver and freshman kicker Patrick Clarke came into drill a 43-yard field goal with :04 left in the half. It was Clarke's first career field goal on his first attempt.

BUFFALO 51, AKRON 10

NOV. 19, 2011 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

The University at Buffalo football team had a couple of important concepts to get back in the winning column.

One was striking early against a struggling Akron team and the other was to get Branden Oliver closer to the single-season school rushing record.

Check and check.

The Bulls used a 93-yard kickoff return on the game's first play by Brandon Murie and a Division I-A record 235 yards rushing by Oliver to dominate the Zips, 51-10, on Saturday in a Mid-American Conference contest at UB Stadium. The 51 points were the most Buffalo has scored in a MAC game and the most since UB hung 60 points on Central Connecticut State in 1992.

The heroes were abundant for Buffalo, but none stood taller than the 5-8, 200-pound Oliver, the sophomore from Miami, FL who continued his sensational season with a record-breaking effort. Oliver had 29 carries for 235 yards, scored two touchdowns and added 38 yards receiving for a total of 273 all-purpose yards. The 235 yards rushing were the most by a Bull in since moving to Division I-A in 1999, surpassing current Green Bay Packer James Starks' 231 yards vs. Toledo in 2007. His 273 yards of all-purpose offense (including 38 receiving) are second to Drew Haddad in school history (276 vs. Cornell in 1998). Oliver's 235 yards are second most in school history to only Alan Bell's 266 yards in 1991.

After Murie's rousing 93-yard kickoff return to start the game, Oliver scored the game's first touchdown from one yard out and the Bulls were off and running.

The other offensive hero for Buffalo was sophomore wideout Fred Lee. Lee had a career-high six receptions for 52 yards and a pair of touchdowns. His second touchdown came on an acrobatic 10-yard catch to put the Bulls up 14-0.

The Buffalo defense also forced two turnovers with the biggest coming with Buffalo holding a 14-3 edge in the second quarter. Najja Johnson stepped in front of an Akron pass near his goal line and returned it 31 yards. The Bulls would get one of three Patrick Clarke field goals – he hit from 41, 49 and 26 yards in the game – to go ahead 17-3 and were never threatened thereafter.

The Bulls defense had one of their finest performances of the season, limiting Akron to 239 yards of total offense. Khalil Mack was a force once again, racking up five solo tackles, two sacks, three tackles for loss, a forced fumble, a pass breakup and a blocked punt. The Bulls front seven dominated the line of scrimmage as defensive end Colby Way led the unit with six tackles, including two tackles for loss.

Quarterback Chazz Anderson completed 19-of-25 passes for 155 yards and threw for a pair of touchdowns and ran for another. He now has accounted for 17 total touchdowns on the season. Of note was the play of the UB tight ends – Alex Dennison, Jimmy Gordon and Aaron Connacher – who contributed six catches on the day for 40 yards.

The Bulls accounted for a season-high 331 yards rushing in the game. Junior Jeffvon Gill came of the bench to rush for 49 yards on 13 carries, while Murie added two for 15 yards.

"I couldn't be more proud of our entire football program, our coaches and our players to put on the kind of performance we saw today," said head coach Jeff Quinn. "I couldn't be more proud of the way they hung in there all year and to be able to have this kind of game. We put it all together, all three phases of the game, and it started out with the first play of the game with Brandon Murie and a big-time kickoff return down to their one-yard line. I knew right from that point our kids were ready to play. To put 50 points on an East Divisional rival team says a lot about our kids and now what we have to do is to have that same energy and same mindset to carry over to next Friday and Bowling Green."

Oliver goes into next week's season finale against Bowling Green just 65 yards behind Starks single-season record of 1,333 yards.

"Bo inspires us, its exciting just when you call his number and he's got the ball in his hands," said Quinn. "You just don't know what's going to happen, that's how exciting he is."

BOWLING GREEN 42, BUFFALO 28

NOV. 25, 2011 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

On a wind-swept day at UB Stadium, Bowling Green's efficiency with the breeze at their back overcame Branden Oliver's one-man assault of the Bulls' record book as the Falcons left UB Stadium with a 42-28 Mid-American Conference victory.

The Falcons scored on four straight possessions with the howling 20-30 mile per hour breeze at their back starting late in the second quarter and into the third to overcome an early Buffalo lead and Oliver's record-breaking day.

Oliver, the sophomore from Miami, FL, went over 200 yards of all-purpose yardage for the second straight game. Oliver ran for 127 yards on 34 carries and accounted for a career-best 92 yards on six receptions for a total of 219 all-purpose yards. For the game, Oliver became the single-season leader in rushing attempts (306), rshing yards (1,395 rushing yards, breaking the school mark of 1,333 by James Starks in 2008), all-purpose yards (1,760, breaking Starks' record of 1,694) and 100-yard rushing games in season (8).

Oliver broke the record in the second quarter and also scored from six yards that quarter to give Buffalo a 17-7 lead at that point. The touchdown was his 13th of the season, which is fourth best all-time for a single season.

The Bulls got the first score of the game with its defense on the field. Junior defensive ends Steven Means made a tremendous athletic play, breaking up a screen pass, tipping the ball in the air and then snatching it and returning it 42 yards for his first career touchdown. It was Means' second career interception.

However, after racing out to the 10-point lead, the Bulls could not hold the momentum. Bowling Green (5-7, 3-5 in the MAC) got things going by blocking a punt inside the Bulls' 30-yard line midway through the second quarter. BG quarterback Matt Schilz, who would throw for 236 yards and four touchdowns despite the strong winds, connected on a 28-yard touchdown throw to Eugene Cooper to cut the lead to 17-14.

The Bulls would respond the following drive behind the hard-charging Oliver, who converted two first downs with churning runs. An eight-yard gain on third-and-one at the BGSU 36-yard line set the school single-season rushing record. The drive would culminate in a 27-yard field goal by freshman Patrick Clarke. Clarke made all six of his field goals on the season after taking over the placekicking duties at Eastern Michigan three weeks ago.

The Falcons would get their offensive footing late in the first half, as they capped a 74-yard drive with a touchdown with :23 left in the half to take the lead, 21-20, into the half. BG would carry that momentum into the second half as they would score on three of their first four offensive possessions to take control of the game.

It would be the final game of their careers for 20 seniors who were honored before the game for their contributions to Bulls' football. Senior safety Josh Copeland led the Bulls with seven tackles, while another senior, Fred Branch added five stops. Freshman linebacker Lee Skinner had seven tackles, while sophomore standout Khalil Mack wrapped up a huge season with five tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and a quarterback hurry. He concluded the season with 20.5 tackles for loss, second most in school history and had 1.5 tackles for loss or more in eight games.

History of UB Football

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "...did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was hand-picked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993

World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of the Year honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that

Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Discrimination Is Issue

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—104 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic
